Hello! I'm Jaimee

HAPPILY SINGLE (FOR NOW!)

I am financially and emotionally independent and currently do not have a boyfriend/husband, but would gladly welcome that into my life when it's my time.

DEAR EXPECTANT PARENTS

I admire your strength in choosing adoption for your child. I can only imagine all of the emotions that you are feeling during this time. A main priority is providing your child a sense of identity, and I always want him or her to know how much they are loved by you right from the beginning. I am open to and respect the level of openness that you would like to have with your child. I know that you have many families to choose from, and I hope that you find a special connection with me and that we can travel on this journey together.

I'm Jaimee, and I'm energetic, positive, outgoing and always smiling. I'm the middle child of three, with an older brother and a younger sister. I cherish moments and traditions shared with my friends and family. I like to keep active through exercise such as running in 5Ks and doing pilates, going to concerts and sporting events and being outside biking, skiing, boating or at the beach. This year, I've also gotten pretty good at cooking healthy meals and have taken up guitar lessons and painting classes. I'm a hard worker, with a strong character, loyal and protective over those that I love.

When I'm a parent, I'm going to ensure that I have flexibility to work from home and my first priority will be my child and weeknight dinners together, and being there for after school events and homework.

MY FAITH

✝ Being part of a church was a big part of my childhood, provided a special place with my mother, sister, grandmother and great aunts and instilled in me to be a good person. MY SISTER SAYS

“ My sister is an outstanding candidate for an adoptive mother. She is an extremely loving person who will provide a safe healthy life for a child, full of happiness, laughs and amazing opportunities. Education, positive morals and values and the love of life and family will be highly instilled within the child. She is truly an asset to the life of a child. She is a wonderful aunt to our two daughters and they love to be with Aunta. MY FRIEND SAYS

“ Jaimee is patient, intelligent, successful in her career and friendships, and she is most importantly humble and loving. As a friend for over 20 years, she is able to provide guidance and has a willingness for all to be happy and successful. Being in the presence of her around her nieces and nephew as well as my family, she is dedicated to this next path to motherhood. Because she is patient and has
